1. Catholic bishop Ramanauskas of Lithuania was seen in the Soviet internment camp at Inta during the period 1948 to 1951. The camp is located 150 miles southwest of Vorkuta, RSFSR.
2. Theodor Negropontes, former adjutant of ex-King Carol of Rumania, was seen in the Inta camp during the period 1948 to 1951. He had been sentenced to 25 years and was suffering from a pulmonary ailment.
3. In 1949, at the special internment camp in Norilsk, there was a German-American named Hopkins (fnu).
4. In February 1954, an American named Mary Hirschfeld was transferred from Butyrskiy prison in Moscow to an unknown destination. She stated that she had received 15 years for espionage. She was not permitted to write letters.

Comment: Theodor Negropontes would be too young to have served as adjutant to King Carol. He was, however, a friend of King Michael, to whom he may have served as aide.
